

Early Childhood Education Commitment to Care Service Award

Presented by the Nova Scotia Child Care Association

Caring for and educating young children is one of the most important occupations in our society. These new awards are an extension to the ECLC Awards of Excellence for Program or Practice and the Caring at Work Awards in Nova Scotia.

The NSCCA is offering the opportunity for ECEs to be recognized by colleagues for their years of dedication and service to Early Childhood Education. These practitioners and the programs they offer both provide care and nurturing to young children, and have an impact on each child's life that lasts a lifetime.
