The Organization

The Nova Scotia Child Care Association (NSCCA) is a non-profit organization that recognizes that child care practitioners are the main ingredient in high quality child care and provide a valuable service to society. The organization is committed to improving standards and guidelines for the profession and thereby increases the quality of child care. NSCCA is dedicated to increasing the recognition of the important role of child care practitioners in providing quality child care to our children.

NSCCA Goals:

- To educate and facilitate the ethical practice of its members and support its members in applying ethics to their work.
- To educate and facilitate the use of standards of practice in its members.
- To advocate and support its members in their provision of quality child care.

The Nova Scotia Child Care Association (NSCCA) uses three committees to accomplish its goals and involve its membership in establishing the direction of NSCCA. Our committees related to its objectives are:

- Ethics Committee- To educate and facilitate the ethical practice of its members
- Membership and Standards Committee- To educate and facilitate the use of standards of practice in its members
- Advocacy Committee- To advocate and support its members in their provision of quality child care
